

"A Secret Predator" by Diane

You came on so unassumingly: you snuck into our home never to leave us alone.

You came with the water and the rain and caused us such pain, you ran up our walls and into our halls, creeping and seeping into our lives reeking havoc along the way.

You made it impossible for us to stay , we had to up and move away, tears and fears and the loss of all those years!

A faded picture of the laughter and the tears of those who are here and those who are gone, you ripped our memories of our life's treasures for this loss there are no measures!

You truly are a predator you have been spoken of in Biblical days and you haven't changed your ways!

You destroy all in your path! Many have felt your wrath in their homes, schools, workplace, and in their minds, body and spirit yet few understand you and your sneaky ways!

You are MOLD!!!!
